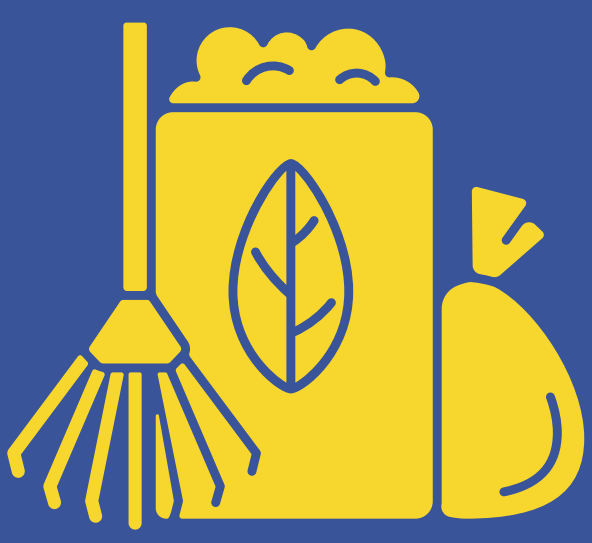
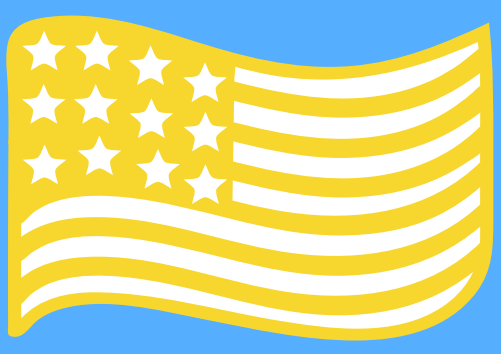
7 FAMILY ACTIVITIES TO PROMOTE CIVIC LEADERSHIP IN CHILDREN

Look for a community project that interests your child and volunteer for a day.



Discuss your family's history and traditions. Invite a neighbor to share their heritage. Host a cultural dinner.

Sort through outgrown clothes and toys to donate locally.



Sing patriotic songs and practice the Pledge of Allegiance.

Read a biography about a famous leader.

Attend city council meetings, school board meetings or court sessions. Visit historical museums, monuments, and/or national parks.

Develop a Family Constitution with age appropriate "laws" of the household, such as all members will help with chores. Allow kids to have an active voice in decisions.
